OBITUARIES

Mary A. Covin

Requiem mass for Mary Angela Covin, who died Dec. 18, was celebrated Thursday at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Taft, Calif. Rosary was recited at the church.

Mrs. Covin, a registered nurse, had lived in the Torrance area for six years. She made her home at 3650 Emerald St. A native Californian, she was born Dec. 1, 1936.

She is survived by her husband, Leland; her mother, Eileen Burke of Taft, Calif., and a son, James.

Interment was in West Side Cemetery in Taft. Stone and Myers Mortuary was in charge of local arrangements.

tuary Chapel with interment in Roosevelt Memorial Park. The Rev. Robert Jones of the First Christian Church officiated.

Mrs. Travioli, who was born March 27, 1892, in Indiana, was a longtime real estate agent in Torrance.

She is survived by a nephew, Ernest C. Holmes of Porterville, Calif.

... Pursuit

"I want to die," he was quoted by officers.

He was taken to the Torrance City Jail and booked on drunk driving and reckless driving charges.

Roy J. Murray

Graveside services for Roy James Murray of 21926 Vermont Ave., were held Dec. 17 at Green Hills Memorial Park with Stone and Myers Mortuary in charge of arrangements.

Mr. Murray, who was born in Kansas, had lived in the area for 60 years. He was employed as a truck driver for a dairy. Mr. Murray died Dec. 14 in Long Beach at the age of 77.

He is survived by his widow, Lena Dell Murray; a daughter, Olive Carpenter, and a son, Robert Murray of Lancaster, Calif.

TORRANCE police also reported the arrest of two other men on drunk driving charges Thursday evening.

Walter George Ryan Jr., was charged with drunk driving and hit and run after he was involved in an accident on Western Avenue and 190th Street, near the San Diego Freeway ramp. The accident occurred about 7:15 p.m.

The second man, Leo S. Pooler, a lieutenant commander in the U. S. Navy, was charged with drunk driving after he struck a car driven by Raymond J. Acosta of Wilmington. Pooler rear-ended the Acosta vehicle at Sepulveda Boulevard and Cabrillo Avenue.

Pooler, assigned to a Navy unit at Long Beach State College, resides at 22621 Cerise Ave. in Torrance.

C. H. Hursh

Mr. Hursh, a retired pharmacist has lived in the Torrance area for the past 10 months. He died last Monday.

He is survived by a daughter, Louise Zimmerman of Torrance, and three grandchildren.

... Trio Held

(Continued from Page 1) women apparently secured credit from the department stores by using a false name, then made major purchases on the account.

Jack G. Ewing, district credit manager for the stores, said at least two home entertainment units and one color television set had been obtained in that manner. In addition to the items seized by police.

Eliza Travioli

Funeral services for Eliza Ann Travioli, who died here Dec. 13, were held Dec. 16, at the Stone and Myers Mor-
